As we hear these scriptures proclaimed today, think how Jesus, the response of gratitude is a mark of faith. God is always acting in the world, in our lives. For healing and gratitude in the first reading and Gospel. Luke 17:11

Psalm 98 “The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power”

2Timothy 2:8-13 If, like Christ, we hold out even to death, we will reign with Christ.

19 Ten lepers show faith in obeying the Lord, but only one receives their healing.

2Kings 5:14 The foreigner Naaman humbles himself and receives God’s healing.

No parables today, but two very real stories of healing and gratitude in the first reading and Gospel. God is always acting in the world, in our lives. For Jesus, the response of gratitude is a mark of faith. As we hear these scriptures proclaimed today, think about what God has done in your life and how to respond? What have you done to show your gratitude? How has that been an experience of your faith?

PLEASE! Turn off your cell phones or set them on mute during Mass, in consideration of your fellow worshipers.
